"Also you are advised of the following order issued by the Federal Fuel Commissioner of Kentucky:

"Due principally to the publicity given the shortage of coal and the difficulty experienced in providing patriotic and loyal manner, the comfor the requirements of all consumers, the situation has developed whereby consumers with coal anticipating a shortage in the near future are unnecessarily adding to their supplies. The hoarding of coal by the individual beyond his immediate necessities and the delivery of coal by the dealers in a community in every possible way. To insure fairness in the distribution of coal, it ration a plan similar to that in efcountry. In this connection I am of coal to fill the same, which decconfined in so far as possible to Sunday previous and no more. those in need of fuel and delivery to consumers with supnreventea ply on hand.

"Enclosed herewith are the declaration forms which you will please use under the above instructions.

In connection with the above the indicate to whom the matter of com-should be referred:

"All complaints or applications for relief should be made to the chairman of the local committee. No action can be taken except upon its recommendation and report as outlined. This will be saved by addressing communications direct to the local committee. A shortage reported by a dealer or consumer may indicate nothing more than an irdividual and not a community shortage. Complaints or applications sent to the United States Fuel Administrator or the State Administrator will merely be referred to the local committee. This committee will make a thorough investigation and report its findings with recommendations, to the State Fuel Administrator. If the latter, by exercising his authority, cannot get the relief to which the case is entitled, he will seek aid from Washington. The Fuel Administration cannot act except where the facts placed before it prove a general emergency, in volving the whole community. Our duty is to assist the local committee

Kentucky Woman Tells How Tanlac Put Stomach Back in Shape.

"It used to be that eating food like beans, cabbage or onions would make me sick at my stomach, but since I've been taking Tanlac I can eat anything I want," said Mrs. Mary Hunter, 110 Gray street, Lou-

"I always had gas in my stomach after eating before I tried Tanlac, and I'd feel bloated," Mrs. Hunter continued. "My appetite was very poor, too, and sometimes I had pains in my stomach.

"I felt draggy and tired out and it was hard for me to get at my tired and sometimes I'd get up with a headache that would last all day.

"Somebody told me that Tanlac was good for the stomach and finally I tried it. Before I had taken all of the first bottle I saw I was getting better. I kept on taking Tanlac though until I had taken three bottles in all and now my stomach is back in fine shape. I can eat any kind of food I want now and I'm really feeling well again."

Get Tanlac to-day if you are not feeling right. Tanlac has helped thousands of run-down men and women and it will do for you what it has done for others. You can get Tanlac at G. S. Varden's drug store.

NAMES AND ADDRESSES OF SOL-DIERS AND SAILORS WANTED.

Some time ago THE NEWS endeavored to get a list of names of the young men from Paris and Bourbon county who are in the service of the country in the army and the navy. The object was to keep a 152 tions and clubs do. Only two names were sent in in response to the appeal, which is now repeated. A prominent Bourbon county farmer, in conversation with THE NEWS Wednesday, mentioned the subject, saying he had noticed the 14 plan being successfully followed out in other places. THE NEWS, as formerly stated, broached the subject some time ago, and had hoped to obtain a complete list. We hope that the matter will be taken up by some one interested, and that we may be furnished with a complete roster. What is earnestly desired is the full name of the enlisted man; his place of birth; names of parents; .477 place of enlistment; name of company, regiment, etc., or of the ship on which he is serving; any data of that kind that will help the cause. This will be properly tabulated in this office and kept on file, so as to form a complete reference for the future. Will those who know these boys kindly help our proposition? Mail this information to us, or send it to the office. We will appreciate it.

JEFFERSON WILL ADMITTED TO PARIS EVIDENCE PROBATE AT CARLISLE.

Jefferson, who died at his home in Carlisle, some time ago, was admitted to probate before County Judge Harry B. Kennedy, at Carlisle. The will was written in October, 1913. It directs that all the property left after payment of debts and funeral expenses, go to his widow, Mrs. Jefferson, absolutely without reserve or restriction. Wm. S. Dudley, of Lexington, and Mrs. Jefferson are nominated as executors to administer the estate, with the request that they be permitted to qualify without bond. The will directs that no inventory of the estate be required.

Mr. Jefferson, who was familiarly known everywhere as "Uncle Perry," was one of the best known men in Central Kentucky. He was a native of Mason county, but had been a resident of Millersburg and Carlisle for many years. He was prominently connected with the tobacco and farming interests of Bourbon and Nicholas counties.

When you go out to make a call in person you always assure yourself of the right address.

In making a telephone call it saves a lot of time and bother to be sure of the number.

The absolutely sure way is to first consult the telephone directory-not trusting to memory-and then listen carefully when the operator repeats back to you the number, correcting her if she is wrong.

POWER DEVELOPMENT.

(Omaha Bee, December 5, 1917.)

By far the greater part of our able water power developments that coal consumption is for the purpose previously did not seem worth of generating power to drive the machinery used in transportation which makes it so imperative for us our American enterprise and to have a regular and reliable out- nuity, and to expedite this develput from the mines. While other fuels, such as gas, natural gas, fuel forthcoming without delay. ail, gasoline and wood, can be substituted for coal, the extent to which it is possible to carry this substitution is extremely limited and at best it can serve only to relieve the pressure for increased coal consumption. It must not be forgotten either that the available supply of the substitutes likewise is strictly limited.

The one obvious way to conserve coal without using up some other kind of fuel is through water power development / through harnessing forces of nature that can be made to do the same work with no diminution of supply. True, the number of water power sites that may be porfitably utilized is definitely limited, but in each case the energy capacity can be drawn upon continu-

The American House Manager is today a member of the army that is fighting to save democracy in the world. More than 11,000,000 managers of American homes have enlisted for the duration of the war and pledged themselves to support the fighting men by the way they buy, cook and serve food. Food will win the war, and these women will help to win it. America must send food to Europe: The armies cannot hold out if we fall to send it. Only certain foods can be shipped—those that pack the most food value into the smallest shipping space. These foods are wheat, meat, fats, sugar. We cannot eat them and send them too. We cannot eat them and send others. We must send these foods, and in order to do that we must eat other foods ourselves. The American House Manager will see to it that no food comes into her home that does not do its full duty under her management in winning the war.

More Than 3,000 Million Bushels Raised in 1917—Gives Big Surplus.

SAVES WORLD FOOD SITUATION

America Beginning Greatest Corn Consumption in History, Using Cereal in Many Delicious Dishes.

Corn, America's greatest vereal crop, is now moving rapidly to market.

More than 3,000 million bushels-30 bushels for every man, woman and child in America-were raised in 1917. It was a mighty crop. The actual increase is about 500 million bushels. And this extra store of grain is coming on to the market in the nick of time, since the American wheat surplus has been sent to help feed famine threatened Europe.

Just as it happened in the Colonial days, the War of the Revolution, and the Civil War, corn has actually become the nation's mainstay.

In the entire list of America's food commodities there is no item that is better than corn. In puddings, bread, corn pone, and as hominy combined with meat or eggs, corn is without a peer. Housewives are fast learning the large number of delicious dishes that may be made with corn and their families are benefiting by an increased use of the cereal. Corn, more than any other cereal, contains all of the elements essential to maintaining life

In order that the fighting men abroad and in the army camps at home may be fed, and in order that actual famine may be kept from the nations associated with America in the war, the citizens of America are finding corn products delicious and palatable on "wheatless days" and glory in the fact that "wheatless days" here mean more wheat for the war worn allied nations in Europe.

England, France and Italy must be fed from America's great storehouse. They will get some corn—especially Italy-but most of their grain shipments must be wheat. Their ability to use corn is small compared to the facilities they have for using wheat. And it is the opinion of officials in Washington that the present is no time to try and change the eating habits of

America's greatest use of corn will be in the form of corn bread and corn in lieu of damages, says that while meal, mixed with wheat in the making

Mixed with 80 per cent. wheat flour,

Hominy grits, served at breakfast with a poached egg, or eaten at any other meal with meats or gravy, is another use of corn that will become unusually popular during the war.

Corn syrup to sweeten corn cakes. and corn oil for use in all kinds of cooking, are two more products that are already welcomed in thousands of American homes.

THE UNITED STATES FOOD

ADMINISTRATION SAYS: Food saving is in its essence the daily individual service of all the people. Every group can substitute, and even the great majority of thrifty people can save a little -and the more luxurious elements of the population can, by reduction to simple living, save much. This means no more than that we should eat plenty, but wisely and without warte.

Food Will Win the War

LARGE part of the world is coming to the position that Belgium is in; coming to the stage where the primary and important thing in life is enough food to keep alive. Food has now taken a dominant position in the war. The American reople must prepare themselves to sacrifice far more than was at first thought neces-

The cold facts are: France, Italy and England have just enough food to keep them going ten or twelve weeks. When America's food shipments stopthe allied nations begin consuming into this slender store and begin a swift march into actual famine conditions—which would mean defeat in short order.

Europe then must live on America's surplus. Your saving increases our available stocks just that much and actually feeds some person in the countries with which we are associated in our war against the Central Powers.

Our surplus wheat has already been shipped to the allies. U. S. FOOD ADMINISTRATION
